

Biographie

Habib Kammoun

FSS, University of Sfax, Tunisia
IEEE Tunisia Section chair

Habib M. Kammoun (IEEE Senior Member'15) received a PhD degree in computer science from the National Engineering School of Sfax (ENIS), University of Sfax, Tunisia. He is an Assistant Professor with the Department of Computer Science, Faculty of Sciences - University of Sfax, Tunisia.

He is member of the REGIM-Lab. (Research Groups in Intelligent Machines, University of Sfax, Tunisia) and member of the MIR Labs (Machine Intelligence Research Labs, USA). His research interests include soft computing, computational intelligence, intelligent transportation systems, and smart cities. Habib is a program committee member within several IEEE conferences and some journals.

Habib is the current IEEE Tunisia section chair, member of the Computational Intelligence Society chapters' committee, member of the IEEE MGA Training committee, and volunteer in several other IEEE committees. He organized several IEEE international conferences and he received some IEEE awards; recently the 2016 IEEE MGA Outstanding large section award, 2015 IEEE R8 Outstanding large section award, 2014 IEEE R8 Young Professionals Exceptional Volunteer award, and 2013 IEEE Volunteer Leadership Training award.